

Please do not lessen the strength of Indiana's telephone privacy law. I have received many fewer solicitation calls as a result of Indiana's no-call list. I ask that you consider federal guidelines that are at least as stringent as those already in place in Indiana.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Kori McOmber